

2015 Mark C. Smith Poetry Contest

View this email in your browser

We are now accepting submissions for the 11th Annual Dr. Mark C. Smith Poetry Contest! This contest is open to all Framingham Public School students in grades K-12. There will be at least one winner per grade level.

Poems may have been written any time during this school year. Poems may be written in any class, at home, in response to an assignment or in a student's free time. Poems may be written in any language (please provide translations.)

Middle and high school entries should be typed. Please make sure that each entry includes the student's full name, grade, school and teacher on the back!

Submissions may be sent to the Framingham Education Foundation mailbox at the Perini Building, Suite 5, via the F.P.S. pony. Entries should be received by Wednesday, April 15th, 2015. If you have any questions, please e-mail contest coordinator Susan Whittaker at framinghamedfoundation@live.com.

Poems may be written about any subject and may have been written any time this school year.

Winning poets receive a certificate, an age appropriate poetry anthology and the opportunity to participate in an evening celebration at the Framingham Public Library on Monday, June 1, 2015.

We are hoping to have entries from every school, so help spread the word!
