Dear Framingham Public Schools Parents/Guardians,

Framingham Public Schools is happy to announce that Carolyn Banach and Deborah Holman are the finalists for the position of Principal at Framingham High School.

Carolyn Banach is currently Principal of Milford High School; prior to that she was an Assistant Principal and also a Guidance Counselor. She began her career in St. Mary's Jr./Sr. High School as a Psychology teacher and Guidance Counselor and then moved on to Littleton High School where she served as a Guidance Counselor and Assistant Principal/Director of Guidance. Ms. Banach is a graduate of Assumption College (B.A. and M.A.).

Deborah Holman is currently an Interim Principal at North Andover High School. Prior to that, she was Headmaster of Brookline High School. In addition to beginning her career in public education as a History and Social Sciences teacher at Newton North High School, she also served as its Vice Principal. Moreover, she was a teacher in both the International School of Bangkok in Thailand and the International School of Kuala Lumpur in Malaysia. Ms. Holman is a graduate of Wellesley College (B.A.) and Boston College (M.A.).

Please join us for conversations with the candidates on Wednesday April 12, 2017, in the Closed Classroom of the Library at Framingham High School. Carolyn Banach will meet with you from 6 pm until 7 pm, and Deborah Holman will meet with you from 7 pm until 8 pm. Surveys for each candidate will be provided at that time for your comments and feedback.

Special thanks to Members of the Screening Committee for generously giving up their time to ensure a thorough and fair process: Ildefonso Arellano, Deborah Butler, Glenda Cohen, Kylon Colinet, Roxanna Copeland, Jeff Convery, Maria Davis, Dr. Sonia Diaz, Peter Erbland, Sarah Hofschire, Anne Ludes, Michelle Melick, Nancy Novo O'Connor, Maria Sequenzia, Colette Sicotte, Viviana Vilches, and Kerry Wood. Your genuine commitment and dedication to the future of Framingham High School is commendable and greatly appreciated.

Please join us on Wednesday.

Sincerely,

Inna Kantor London
Director of Human Resources
